

ISPS Information

In the port district of Lødingen there is 1 ISPS terminal.

The Rødholmen Terminal

The Rødholmen Terminal is located at Lødingen. There is established Manuel access control to the terminal, which means that all personnel with access to the terminal have to be cleared by the Port Control in advance. Key cards for visiting vessels will be issued by the Port Control upon arrival of the vessel.

Contact Information

All questions regarding the terminals mentioned above can be addressed to the following persons:

PFSO Magne Haslevang , Leader of port Phone: +47 76 98 66 00 Mobile: +47 95 99 79 30	Deputy PFSO Asbjørn Skovro, Operating Manager Phone: +47 76 98 66 19 Mobile: +47 99 10 50 12	Port control Port Inspector havn@lodingen.kommune.no Fax: + 47 76 98 66 11 Mobile: +47 95 99 79 30
---	--	--

Pre Arrival Information Public Terminals

Ships entering Port of Lødingen must supply the following information to the ship's agent before arrival.

1. Information on the latest 10 ports of arrival
2. Supply a copy of the ship's "International Ship Security Certificate" on first call.
3. Supply a crew list
4. If necessary: a list of crew changes
5. Supply a list of visitors on board during the port stay
6. Supply a detailed list of companies who are due to deliver commodities and/or services during the ship's stay
7. If passengers on board - supply a passenger list

Ships, who do not have a ship's agent, must in due time of arrival provide the necessary information direct to the Port of Lødingen on e-mail: havn@lodingen.kommune.no sms +47 95 99 79 30

Requirements for the crew

Crew, who wishes to go ashore, must bring personal identification documents with photo.